He requested the Mayor to ask the RCMP to come once a month to the City Council Meetings to provide an update to Mayor and Council. He noted that he attended a meeting last week with Nathalie Richard and Councillor Sheppard regarding a dog park as it would be very useful for the community.

Councillor Nattaq reminded everyone that the roads are slippery and our first responders are going to accidents to help.

Mayor Redfern added for all family members to inform others where they are going when leaving the house in the extreme cold weather we are experiencing. She noted attending the Baffin Mayor's Forum and engaged with new territorial ministers.
